

LOVE-SICK YOUTH COMMITTS SUICIDE

William Bolger, 21 Years of Age,
Shoots Self Through Heart in Davenport Home.

FOLLOWS ACTION OF FRIEND

Roy Manion Takes Life Last Summer
After Quarrel With the Same Woman.

In a fit of despondency over a woman's refusal to longer accept his attentions, William Bolger, 21 years of age, teamster, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart at 7:15 last night at his home, 625 1/2 Rock Island street, Davenport.

His father in an adjoining room heard the shot and he rushed into the apartment. His son died in his arms a few seconds later. It was learned that Bolger had visited Mrs. Loto Weber during the afternoon and it is thought that they quarreled. Bolger had been drinking considerably, but gave no intimation of his rash purpose upon his arrival at home, but went to his room immediately and fired the shot. No inquest will be held.

Last summer one of Bolger's close friends, Roy Manion, aged 29, also a teamster, killed himself by taking poison after a quarrel with Mrs. Weber. It was through Manion that Bolger met the woman. For several months he had been pining Mrs. Weber marked attentions and each time they quarreled he would become depressed.

Manion took poison at the woman's home and walked many blocks before he fell unconscious across the street car tracks on Third street.

Sister Drowns Self.

Three years ago, Mary Bolger, a sister of William Bolger, jumped into the Mississippi and drowned. Besides his parents, Bolger is survived by two sisters.

HOLD AN INQUEST OVER MRS. BROWN

No New Facts Brought Out in Davenport Domestic Tragedy at Hearing Last Night.

Inquest over the remains of Mrs. Nellie Brown, who was shot and killed by her brother-in-law, was held last night at the Boise undertaking parlors in Davenport. The jury found that Mrs. Brown met her death by a bullet wound inflicted by a revolver in the hands of Sherman Brown, now under arrest, charged with the crime. No new points in the domestic tragedy were brought out at the hearing held by Coroner Cantwell.

Brown's wife, who is lying at Mercy hospital with four bullet wounds in her body, is in a much improved condition today and the attending physician states that she will recover. Brown was placed in the Scott county jail. The slayer maintains the same indifference shown when he surrendered to the police. His brother, John Brown, whose wife he killed, visited him yesterday at the jail, and the slayer showed a marked aversion to discussing the tragedy. Brown has asked for an attorney to prepare his case in court. The children of the two families are being cared for by the police matron.
